UNDERSTANDING RACISM WORKSHOP

The Lansing Area CORR Leadership Team is excited to host another Understanding Racism Workshop with CORR (www.cornow.org). We are partnering with them again to offer this life-changing, church-changing, and city-changing 2-day workshop in Lansing ONLINE. We've had 155 people from Lansing representing 28 different churches attend over the last four years. We envision this training to serve as a catalyst for creating a significant movement of anti-racist churches for God in the Lansing community.

Workshop Goals:

- To see and learn about racism in a new and redemptive way.
- To gain insights into systemic racism through the eyes of faith and Scripture.
- To see more of the connections between history and contemporary race relations.
- To identify organizing opportunities to "eliminate racism, both causes and effects, within the body of believers and throughout the world."
- To create a community of Christian antiracists in Lansing

"This is a valuable training for people of color, especially for the Faith community to learn how to understand racism and its roots."

~Deacon Diane Gardin,

"I was amazed how welcoming CORR could make a virtual conference! They seamlessly wove together the speakers, videos, and small-group discussions. The Workshop Participant's Manual was very complete: I still refer to it for Biblical references and speaker notes."

~Thom McCurdy (Racial Justice Team, University Lutheran Church, East Lansing)

"The Understanding Racism class was one more giant step in my journey of becoming an Anti-Racist. I learned history & the underlying racism that formed our country & laws. The class is invaluable."

~Dotty Wilinski (Certified Career Development Facilitator)

"CORR gave me my first glimpse at how the sin of racism grieves the very heart of our God, and I have been a Christian all my life. It is the church's responsibility to disrupt the systematic racism that is in America. Jesus is our only hope, and his heart is revealed in this workshop."

~Ms. Erin Umpstead (English Educator, GSA Advisor, North Campus - Holt High School)

CORR provided me with perspective that I did not have before. It broke my heart for the marginalized people of this country and world. It put me on a different trajectory that will help me see all people how God sees them and better serve as God's hands, feet, eyes, ears, voice and heart."

~Shelley Mull (Sycamore Creek Church)
