

ZoomForum Coming to You this Fall!

Starting on Sunday, September 13th, the hour following ULC's Facebook Live Sunday Service will be devoted to ZoomForum (replacing the Sunday Forum usually held in the Fireside Room). Grab a cup of coffee and enter the zoom link immediately after the service is over to enjoy a few minutes of informal conversation prior to the presentation (and to make sure your audio/video is working). Forum will start at 11:10 and end at noon. As in the past, we will try to allow time for discussion and questions at every forum, but this will be new for all of us, so there may be a few snags here and there.

As speakers/topics are finalized, the schedule linked below will be updated. Following our delightful Kick-off Tour and History of the Artwork at University Lutheran Church on September 13th, we'll dive right in to a fascinating educational series.

September-October ZoomForum Schedule:

Sep-Oct: Pastor Gary Bunge will lead the intriguing series, "How Lutherans Interpret the Bible" Featuring Dr. Mark Allan Powell of Trinity Lutheran Seminary. "In this seven session video series Powell invites you to explore seven important questions about Lutherans and the Bible. He does not prescribe "the Lutheran way" to read the Bible nor does he dismiss the way you may have come to understand the Bible. Instead Powell presents a variety of Lutheran perspectives for interpreting the Bible. Through Powell's rich discussions you will discover answers to questions you have always had about the Bible."
